Computacenter wins Cisco's German Country Award

Award Identifies Cisco's Outstanding Partners Across Europe

Kerpen, April 10th 2007 – Computacenter has been recognised by Cisco® as German Gold Partner in advance of the Cisco Partner Summit 2007, taking place in Las Vegas, USA from 3 to 6 April 2007. The award highlights the significant role that Cisco's partners play in IT delivering tangible benefits to companies of all sizes. Computacenter received this award following a year of providing market leading expertise across a range of criteria.

Computacenter received the „Gold Partner of the Year“ award for exceeding the requirements of the Partner Programm in all aspects and demonstrating exceptional commitment to delivering Cisco's technologies. This accolade has been awarded to Computacenter for consistently leading the way in providing customers and partners with innovative, market leading services, solutions and applications, whilst gaining expertise in three Cisco specialisations and achieving a high level of customer satisfaction. The award recognises these achievements and highlights Cisco's dedication to developing high-quality partnerships.

“We feel that this award is an exceptional honor,” said Dr. Jörg Kastrup, Director Network Business, Computacenter. “Our employees are working hard to make networks better with new technologies. The award is a special appreciation of their commitment, in particular because Cisco effectively called us one of the best network integrators in Germany.”

Eric Wenig, Director Channels and Alliances, Cisco Germany, said, “We have an extensive network of companies that have become trusted advisors to their customers. These partners have the skills, experience and focus to match technology to the business needs of companies throughout Europe. Thanks to this award scheme, we can recognise partners such as Computacenter and reward our top performers, which are bringing the human network to life. This allows people to connect, collaborate and develop ideas and opportunities.”
